

I do oppose the weakening of Indiana's telephone privacy law. We are all on the list for one reason. We do not want, nor appreciate, unwanted phone calls to our place of residence. Just because we have an "established business relationship" does not mean that we want additional unwanted phone calls. The fact that I even do business with anyone who would attempt to challenge this privacy law is crazy. We consumers have rights too. Thanks.